

The Hardware Store represent the soul of today's music, they are classic euro rock and deliver this with grace and a touch of soulful grooves to add some spice. The Hardware Store comprises Mauro Cavarra, lead singer, Fabio Vita on guitar, Salvatore DiGrande on base and Saverio Tavano on drums. They all possess diverse musical backgrounds that allow the band to create something totally unique, something that opens new possibilities within music.

Bringing a mix of their Rock, Blues, Funk, Jazz, and groove influences to the table this band loves to get their hands dirty in order to turn their ideas into amazing tunes. Tirelessly committed both to creating and getting their message out through their music, they want to break down the barriers within the industry and create something amazing that is truly "The Hardware Stores" (THWS) unique brand of euro rock.

The band formed in Summer 2007 in Messina, Sicily, a small, provincial city on the border of a racked and ruined kingdom. Growing up, the four band members isolated themselves from the world so that they could concentrate on their feelings and turn the hatred, anger, wishes, longings and restlessness into music. The line-up is untouchable, music is created from the minds of these four intense individuals in order to bring out the joy and pain of the world and turn it into their own unique sound.

Ready to take to the world The Hardware Store have now signed a global deal in 2009 with indie power house "Blue Pie" www.bluepie.com.au. The Hardware Store's debut album "Out of Service" is out now for the world on Blue Pie. This album was composed in 2008/2009 and represents the true soul of the band members. When you immerse yourself in the music, you will find yourself between love and hate, sensuality and violence, carelessness and blues, you will fall in love with the sounds from The Hardware Store. You will be hungry for more. You will ask yourselves what the hell were you listening to before you discovered this band.

The Hardware Store will be working with Blue Pie throughout 2010 to market their debut album "Out of Service"

QUOTES:

These guys are rocking out Italy, they have solid pounding rock beats coupled with great vocals and a distinctive sound that has been influenced by bands like Maroon 5, The Killers, Led Zep, ACDC, Toto and Aerosmith. These guys have Euro Rock covered and they do it well!

- Demo Dude

Rock and Roll lives in Italy, "The Hardware Store" take it to the streets and provide fans with a new millenium sound of ROCK n ROLL. Rock on with the Hardware Store (HWS). We do.
